

NEWS FROM ONE HUNDRED LIFE CORRESPONDENTS

EASTERN CONNECTICUT AND WESTERN RHODE ISLAND.

Who is Going and Coming—Incidents, Accidents and Building in Three Counties.

New London County

LIBERTY HILL

Pastor to Lecture in Hartford—Sale of Ship.

Rev. Elwell O. Mead is to deliver an address before the Men's club at the Aylwin Hill church, Hartford, next Tuesday night.

Boys Shop. Mrs. Kate J. Clark has bought the blacksmith shop on Liberty Hill street of E. A. Stiles.

The Ladies' Sewing circle met at the home of Mrs. William Wallace Palmer Friday afternoon.

Rev. E. O. Mead has been calling on his parishioners here this week.

Mrs. Ella Peckham has been engaged to teach the remainder of the school term at Kick Hill and commenced Wednesday. The former teacher resigned.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett C. Payson attended the funeral of Mr. Payson's aunt in Charlton, Mass., a week ago Sunday.

J. Henry Clarke the past fall and winter has cleared off brush and white birches from 20 acres or more of pasture land.

The new church hymn book came out Saturday and was used Sunday.

Mrs. G. B. Dimon and son Richard were in Hartford a few days last week with Mrs. Dimon's sister-in-law, who is sick.

ASHWILLETT

Swain Farmhouse Burned—Plans for Summer Camp.

The Swain farmhouse, owned by week Mr. Emery was in Norwich around Friday night of last week. Mr. Timmy was in Norwich at the time.

Moving from Fort Wright. Mr. Young from Fort Wright is at his farm here, overseeing making improvements to the buildings. His family is soon to move here. The work is being done by John James.

Mr. Steadman and two sister, of North Stonington village, were looking over some property at Cossadoc Hill the first of the week, planning to build a bungalow for a summer camp.

Mrs. Grover C. Main is the first here to have a hen setting.

Mrs. Julia A. Crumb entertained her sister from Jewett City, Sunday.

George Pierce and Stella Campbell were in Westerly, Saturday.

Daniel S. Guile and family of Westerly, Sunday called at Mrs. Sarah Palmer.

Mrs. Charles Palmer spent a day with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. N. Main recently.

MOHEGAN

There were good attendances at church Sunday, morning and evening.

Mrs. Avery, who has been ill with a cold, is somewhat better.

Mr. H. H. Davis of New London was in this place Sunday.

Mrs. Denison Davis and son Raymond of Mystic have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Davis for a few days.

Mrs. Dolbear who has been ill for a few days is better.

Mrs. Fowler and Miss Cynthia Fowler called on friends at Trading Cove the first of the week.

Mrs. Hunter, who has been quite ill is improving.

Mrs. Quigley and Mrs. Fowler called on Mrs. E. T. Baker, Monday.

Mrs. Smith and daughter of Northampton were guests of Mrs. Meach the first of the week.

Charles Matthews was in Norwich Thursday.

Mrs. Crumbull of New London attended church in Mohegan Sunday.

Edwin O'Brien, who underwent a serious operation at the Backus hospital a few days ago, is slightly improved.

Mrs. Chappell, who has been ill with grip is better.

NORTH FRANKLIN

Henry Ormsby of South Windham is spending the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Clarke.

Herbert R. Hoffman of Northampton, Mass., is visiting his mother, Mrs. Jennette Hoffman.

Mrs. Frank Case of New London is visiting Mrs. Hannah Kingsley.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Crandall and daughter, Mrs. O'Brien of Windham were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Crandall.

Mr. and Mrs. William Robinson of Lebanon were callers Sunday on Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Clarke.

Mrs. A. T. Browning and daughter, Melville, have spent several days in different towns.

Edgar Kingsley of New York City spent Sunday and Monday with his sister, Miss Eliza Kingsley.

Rev. Harry Reed of Norwicht, was visiting this week with Mr. and Mrs. William C. Smith.

Mrs. George of Norwich spent Tuesday with her sister, Mrs. J. J. Mahoney.

Mrs. Annie Browning of Rehoboth, Mass., spent the week with Mrs. Grace Peckham.

MASHAPAG

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith called recently on E. O'Brien at Backus hospital. His condition is reported as favorable.

Edward O'Brien and Lyman Smith have been having corn and wood cut by machine the past week.

Mrs. Stuenkel has been very ill.

Mrs. and Mrs. Bert Bradford of New Jersey are moving here.

Lanetta Rogers was in Norwich, Friday.

A number from this place attended the supper at Mohegan schoolhouse last Friday evening.

John Griffith was a visitor here Sunday.

George Iahm was a visitor Sunday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Isham.

NORTH LYME

W. M. Sison and son were in Deep River and Torrington, Monday.

Miss Emily Stark is improving in health. Miss Kate McNamara of Chester is caring for her.

W. S. Strong and family visited at L. M. Stark's in Busham, Friday.

Mrs. H. B. Maynard entertained a large number of ladies Monday at a meeting of the Birthday club. An elaborate dinner was served and a very enjoyable day was spent socially.

GOSHEN

C. E. Social—Addition to Church Membership—Death of Mrs. Samuel Perkins.

A Christian Endeavor social was held in Academy hall, Goshen Hill, Friday evening.

A number from this place attended the auction at the Cleveland farm, at the north end of the town, Tuesday.

Albert Kenyon butchered four head some pigs Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis O. Fuller of Columbia were guests of friends here Monday.

At the close of the morning service Sunday one member was received into church membership by letter.

FUNERAL

Mrs. Samuel Perkins.

The death of Mrs. Samuel Perkins occurred Saturday at the old homestead of Deacon William Frink, on the Scott Hill road.

She had been ill with pneumonia. Her husband and three children survive her. Many from this place were in attendance at the funeral which was held Tuesday in the Baptist church at Scott Hill.

The high temperature with the onset of spring brings a reminder of April rather than late February.

The rain of Thursday made traveling on country roads anything but a pleasure.

Andrew Warner, who has been seriously ill with pneumonia, is slowly recovering.

William Tibbitts of Yantic is hauling ties from the Pillar woodlot.

LISBON

Miss Cady to Speak of Mountain Whites—Social at J. H. Kennedy's.

Miss Charlotte Cady of Oxford, Mass., will give a talk Sunday evening on Mission work among the Mountain Whites.

J. H. Kennedy and Fred Kanahan were in Hartford Tuesday and Wednesday, attending the state poultry meeting.

Mr. Albion has been at her former home in Brooklyn for a few days this week.

Took Part in Contest. Walter Hyde was in New London Saturday as one of the three students from the Norwich Business College who took part in the typewriting contest.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dziomba and three children of Laurel Hill were visitors at Mrs. J. H. Kennedy's, Sunday.

A dozen called on Jewett City and at his father's O. H. Irons over Sunday.

For the past three weeks he has been employed in Seymour, repairing an engine that is three stories high.

P. E. Hyde was the guest of his sister, Mrs. F. S. Avery in Norwich Town, Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Thornton with their three sons, Irving, Edward and George, called on City, spent Sunday at Mrs. C. A. Melby's.

There was an attendance of nearly fifty at a social held at Mrs. J. H. Kennedy's, Thursday evening, about a dozen from Jewett City and several from Norwich. Games and piano selections furnished entertainment. Refreshments were served.

OAKDALE

Ladies' Social Union Elects Officers.

At the Congregational church on Sunday, the pastor, Rev. C. L. French, spoke from Rom. 4: 17 and John 18: 36.

The Ladies' Social union met Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. F. C. Schofield, H. being the annual meeting of the union these officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. A. L. Rogers; secretary, Miss C. S. Barker; treasurer, Miss Jessie Schofield. The reports given by the various officers showed the union to have been a very prosperous one for the year.

Mrs. Herbert Turner of Lake Konnecong visited her daughter, Mrs. Everett Thompson, Wednesday.

Clinton, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Thompson, and Jennie, the little granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Clarke, who have been ill, are much better.

CHESTERFIELD

Mrs. Solomon of Norwich, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Kaplan, has returned home.

People who well attended the dance the middle of the week at Warren Rogers' of North Plain.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Powers and family visited friends in Uncasville Sunday.

Misses Mollie and Goldie Kaplan of New Britain spent the night Monday with relatives and friends here.

Mrs. Robert Taylor returned to her home in New London, Wednesday, after caring for her mother two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Miller, who have been to New York to attend a wedding, have returned home.

Schools have been open one evening this week for the benefit of the parents, who visited the schools and heard the class exercises.

LEFFINGWELL

The social held with Mrs. Frank Rose of Wauvates Hill Tuesday evening was well attended. The people of this place were conveyed there in two horse team wagons, one driven by Fred Leffingwell and the other by Fred Gallup.

Mr. and Mrs. LeGrand Chappell were guests Sunday of Mrs. C. L. Palmer.

Miss Florence Taylor of Norwich was the guest of her parents, Sunday.

A missionary meeting was held with Mrs. J. G. Ward Wednesday afternoon. Miss Gladys Leffingwell of Norwich was the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Leffingwell.

Mr. and Mrs. George Sheldon of East Greenwich were callers at P. C. Leffingwell's Sunday.

Robert Brewer and family went to New York Saturday.

A number from here attended the Pomona grange meeting in Norwich last week.

Mrs. Jane Lester returned last week Wednesday from a week's visit with relatives in Westerly.

T. Fred Edmond returned Tuesday from a few days' visit with his brother in Hartford.

Mrs. Josephine Parker of Baltic is visiting at the home of S. G. Norman.

HANOVER

Combined Free Will Offering and Willard Memorial Meeting—Washington Social.

The combined free will offering and Willard Memorial meeting of the W. C. T. U. was held Sunday evening in the Congregational church. The program was in charge of the executive committee with Mrs. James Bennett, president of the local union presiding.

An explanation of the origin of and work done by the Willard Memorial fund was given by Mrs. Caroline Gallup.

Rev. M. J. B. Fuller spoke on "Milestones in the progressive work of the past." Mrs. Bennett gave interesting sketches of the lives of Miss Susan Anthony and Miss Frances Willard.

Special music by the choir and a solo by Mrs. Frank Smith added to the program.

Patriotic Social.

A Washington social was given Monday evening by the Ladies' Guild under the direction of Mrs. Standish. A patriotic program given by the children was much enjoyed. Readings were given by Miss Jane Chapman Gallup and Miss Caroline Gallup. A violin solo by August Banner, accompanied by Mrs. Burdick and also the patriotic songs by the chorus were enjoyed. Ice cream and cake were served in the vestry at the close of the program.

Campfire Meeting.

A program of unusual interest was given at the February meeting of the Woman's Missionary society, at the home of Mrs. Angus Park, Thursday afternoon. This was a campfire meeting based on the "Child at Home" from the "Child in the Midst," and was led by Miss Jane Chapman Gallup.

Visitors from present and past meetings were present and enjoyed the evening. A very pleasant social hour was enjoyed at the close, refreshments being served by the hostess.

Brief Mention.

Miss Hattie Standish of Norwich has been the guest of Mrs. William C. Park, during the week.

Miss Mary Mullen and Miss Margaret Deane of Norwich were guests over Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. M. Deane.

A number from Hanover attended the Public School ball on Monday at the Willamantic, Tuesday evening.

NIANTIC

William Bond of Harvard College passed the holiday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Bond at the Luce residence in Main street.

S. O. Harrington will convert his store into a bungalow.

Miss Isabelle Waldorf has returned to her home in Hartford after spending the holiday in the village.

The Bailey family has moved from the bungalow house in Lincoln street, to the Robert's place, William Hill, Thursday afternoon.

Dr. and Mrs. A. F. Bishop passed Sunday with Mrs. Bishop's sister, Mrs. Mary Morgan, who has been making a visit in New London, has returned.

Copy and Mrs. Nelson J. Huntley are passing the winter with their daughter, Mrs. Gordon B. Coates, in Hartford.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Bond of New York, spent the week-end at the holiday at their residence on Champlain Hill.

Harry Washburn of Norwich spent the week-end at his cottage in the Pines.

Mrs. George Kinne Crandall of New London was the guest of her mother, Mrs. A. Elizabeth Spencer, in Washington avenue, the first of the week.

Miss Elizabeth L. Colville, has closed her cottage, at Pleasant Hill, and Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Adams, at New Farm, N. Y., for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dorman have returned to their cottage in the Green after two months' visit to relatives in Willamantic and a number of places in Massachusetts.

Rev. Walter V. Gray of Waterford was a business caller in Niantic, Monday.

LEONARD BRIDGE

Weinstein-Mariss Wedding—Salmon Clarke's 72nd. Birthday.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Weinstein Sunday night, Miss Beattie Mariss of New York and Benjamin Weinstein of this place were united in marriage by a Rabbi from Colchester. The best man was a cousin of the bride and the groom's cousin of the bride.

The bride was a lovely young woman in white satin, prettily trimmed with beads. Her veil was fastened by a wreath of flowers. About two hundred friends and relatives were present, coming from Boston, New York, and Colchester. The newly married couple will reside at the home of the groom's parents on the McCall farm.

Surprised on Birthday.

Salmon Clarke was agreeably surprised Saturday evening by a party of friends and neighbors who called and spent the evening at being Mr. Clarke's 72nd birthday. A pleasant evening was spent with various selections on the victrola.

Morris Valinsky has had a large new house built and will go into the poultry business.

It is reported that Mr. LeVallie has purchased the Oliver place. Mr. Arthur will move from the Oliver place to a place near Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. K. L. Cummings and children were in Colchester, Sunday.

Frank Adams returned from a week-end of Westchester were local callers Tuesday.

GARDNER LAKE

Miss Lena Avery is spending some time at the home of her father, Irwin Avery.

S. A. Dolbear filled the icehouses of Mrs. Minnie Phillips and Everett Willis, Saturday.

Wesley C. Hanney was the guest of his teacher, Mr. Florence O'Connor, at his home in Colchester for the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hanney were callers in North Stonington last week.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lathrop and son Tyron, of Raymond Hill called on friends at the place Sunday.

Alfred and brothers have rented the Gardner house, now owned by S. A. Dolbear.

The many friends of Mrs. Clara Fish Perkins, formerly of this place, were gathered at her death at her home on Scott Hill.

LAUREL GLEN

Mr. and Mrs. Olyn Swain were callers at W. L. Main's Saturday.

Mr. Hill was called home last week on account of the illness of his son.

Howard Martin and family were visitors at Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Maine's Sunday.

Rev. Mr. Van Horn of Ashaway is expected to preach in the chapel Sunday.

SALEM

Contributions to Congregational Church Building Fund—Public Library to Open Soon.

Rev. R. H. Crawford preached a most effective sermon Sunday morning. The R. E. series in the evening was led by Mrs. Carl Rogers. Topic, Favorite chapters of the Bible, Arthur Kingsley, recited the 23rd Psalm, Dwight Marvin the first Psalm and Le Roy Bailey the 12th chapter of 1st Corinthians. The pastor gave a helpful talk on the subject with illustrations.

Additional Contributions.

Recent contributions to the building fund are as follows: Local—Deacon Albert Morgan, $50; Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Ray, $5; Miss Katherine L. Ray, $5; Clyde A. Ray, $1. From out of town—Mrs. Elizabeth Latham, $5; Mrs. E. T. Cronin, $5; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest L. Wiseman for the First Congregational church at Bristol, $10; A. Somers, of Bristol $1; D. J. Morey, of Bristol, $1; J. S. Childsey, also of Bristol, $2.

While in town this week Rev. R. H. Crawford was the guest of Miss Theodore and Miss Jennie Hurlburt.

Walked to Colchester.

The teachers and upper grade pupils in the Central and West Road districts attended a picnic at Colchester, Sunday afternoon. A party of nine pupils of the Central school walked to the village distant of seven miles. The distance was covered by two of the pupils in one and one-half hours.

Lucy Spencer and Charles Miner also made the return trip on foot making a hike of fourteen miles. While in town the pupils of the Central school entertained at the home of their teachers.

Miss E. T. Cronin, of Colchester, Monday, being summoned as juror for the superior court at Norwich this week.

A carload of lime arrived in Colchester the latter part of last week, and was unloaded and drawn to town for use on the Pratt and Fox farms.

Charles S. Ray was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Seagraves in New London, Sunday. He is serving as juror in the superior court at Norwich this week.

Miss Ruth Steery returned Saturday from a brief visit with her sister, Misses Ora and Iva Steery at the Mexican hotel.

Miss Hannah Fuller of East Had-dam, spent Sunday morning at the home of her sister, Mrs. Amy Miner.

Mr. and Mrs. Alpheus Nye and sons Franklin and Alpheus of Yantic, were week-end guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Miner.

A herd of 13 deer was seen recently making near the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Rogers.

A herd of 15 deer was seen crossing the Bailey and Harvey meadows one day this week.

To Open Library.

Preparations are being made for the opening of the Town library in the Congregational parsonage.

The Ladies' Aid Society met at the Robert's place, William Hill, last Thursday afternoon.

Friends in town of Mrs. Clara Fish Perkins were grieved to learn of her death Sunday.

Previous to her marriage she was a resident of this town.

ROAD SOCIETY

(Stonington.)

Funeral of Mrs. Joseph Harvey—Local Notes.

Mrs. Emma Williams, who is visiting her son in Philadelphia, writes of the interest there in the Billy Sunday meeting.

Seth N. Williams is doing jury duty this week.

Henry Flood spent several days recently at Mason Hewitt's on Hinckley Hill.

Mrs. Seth N. Williams, Mrs. Burrill Herrick, Mrs. Everett Barstow Byles, Mrs. J. D. Wheeler, Mr. and Mrs. Williams, Mrs. Fernando Wheeler, Miss Florence Hewitt, Mrs. Emmeline Allen, Mrs. Mary Hewitt and Mrs. Fanny Williams, attended the D. A. R. reception of Fanny Ledyard chapter, at Mystic, Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Jennie Thompson is spending a week with her daughter in Boston.

Miss Lucy Billings of Lyme spent the holiday at her home here.

Miss Hattie Wheeler is the guest of relatives in North Stonington this week.

Mrs. Noyes Palmer has been in New York for a few days.

Funeral of Mrs. Harvey.

Mrs. Joseph Harvey, who died on Wednesday after a long illness was buried Friday at Colchester.

Her funeral was held at the home near the Road church. The funeral service was attended by Rev. Dwight Rogers, of Colchester, at the church parlor, where a large number of her relatives assembled. Mrs. Harvey had been a member of the Road church for 35 years.

PRESTON

County Agent Murray D. Lincoln gave an address here Monday on the cooperative buying of chemicals for fertilizers.

Miss Mary Zabriskie is visiting her father, D. Zabriskie.

A number of children were entertained by Mrs. C. K. Cray Monday to celebrate the birthday of Master Douglas M. Pettibone.

Grange Programs.

The grange held its meeting Tuesday evening with about fifty members present. During the Lecturer's hour, Luther K. Zabriskie gave an interesting talk on Peru. There was a duet by Mrs. Nellie Maine and Marjorie Willis, a paper on Washington and Lincoln by Phoebe Sheldon, and a recitation by Miss Alice Wing.

A reading by Miss Helen Hall, and a solo by A. Gerotti.

</